For Immediate Release

Jakarta, June 28, 2013 - PT ANTAM (Persero) Tbk (ASX - ATM; IDX - ANTM; ANTAM) is pleased to announce that the company received international recognition in Good Corporate Governance (GCG).

ANTAM received three awards in two different events: the 9th Asian Recognition Awards 2013 and the Alpha Southeast Asia 2013. At the former event, ANTAM was nominated as Asian Outstanding Company on Corporate Governance; while at the later event, the company received the Best Senior IR Management Support and the Best Compliance in the Corporate Governance awards.

The awards were given based on various stages of respondent survey in Asia. The respondents were comprised of investors, pension funds, hedge funds, stock and bond brokers, and analysts.

The three awards confirm ANTAM's commitment and external recognition in GCG implementation. Previously, ANTAM was bestowed several GCG accolades from external parties: Strongest Adherence to Corporate Governance award of the Alpha Southeast Asia Award 2012; 2nd Rank in Best GCG Implementation Award of the Business Review; Best Corporate Governance for Non-Financial Sector award of the IICD Award 2012; and Most Trusted Companies award of the CGPI Award 2012.

Corporate Governance Asia Recognition Awards 2013 was an international event that awarded companies that consistently implemented corporate governance in Asia. While the Alpha Southeast Asia Magazine is a monthly magazine focusing on investment banking and capital markets, published for investment companies, as well as asset and fund management companies in Asia.
